The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 2, to Saturday November 6, 1762.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 3d Day of November, 1762,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majeſty in Council, That the Order in Council, iſſued on the 17th of September laſt, for Proroguing the Parliament from Tueſday the Ninth to Thurſday the Eleventh Day of this Inſtant November, be diſcharged. And that the Parliament be Prorogued from Tueſday the Ninth to Thurſday the Twenty-fifth Day of this Inſtant November. And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain is to cauſe a Commiſſion to be prepared, in the uſual Manner, for Proroguing the Parliament accordingly.

W. Blair.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th Day of September, 1762,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majeſty was pleaſed, by His Order in Council of the 2d of April laſt, to direct, That the Bounties of Six Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Three Pounds for every ordinary Seaman, ſhould continue to be paid to every ſuch able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who ſhould, on or before the 31ſt Day of May laſt, voluntarily enter themſelves to ſerve in His Majeſty's Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majeſty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board ſuch Tenders as ſhould be employed for raiſing Men for the Service of His Majeſty's Royal Navy: And alſo that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings ſhould be continued to be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who ſhould, on or before the ſaid 31ſt Day of May laſt, voluntarily enter themſelves in like Manner to ſerve in His Majeſty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Five Pounds for every able, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, ſhould continue to be paid to any Perſon who ſhould diſcover any Seaman or Seamen who may ſecret themſelves, ſo that ſuch Seaman or Seamen ſhould be taken for His Majeſty's ſaid Service, on or before the ſaid Thirty-firſt Day of May laſt. —— And whereas the Time limited for paying the ſaid Bounties and Rewards hath been continued and extended to the 30th of this Inſtant September; And it being judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, that the ſame ſhould be continued for ſome Time longer; His Majeſty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the ſaid Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the ſaid 30th Day of this Inſtant September, to the 30th Day of November next. And that the ſaid Bounties and Rewards be paid in the Manner directed by His Majeſty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 2d of April laſt. Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themſelves accordingly.

W. Blair.

St. James's, November 6.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Northampton, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, and one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Northampton.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Northampton, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the Birth of an Heir Apparent to the Crown of Great Britain. The Experience of the many Bleſſings, which this Nation now enjoys under your Majeſty's Gracious Government, and which it has long enjoyed under your Majeſty's Royal Anceſtors, could not fail of producing in our Hearts the moſt ardent and anxious Wiſhes for their Permanency and Stability. We therefore expreſs our unfeigned Joy on this great and auſpicious Event, ſo promiſory of our future Happineſs, and look forward to the Effects of your Majeſty's excellent Example and Parental Inſtructions to the Prince of Wales, as inſuring the Accompliſhment of our moſt ſanguine Expectations for us and our Poſterity.

Your Majeſty will permit us to add our further Congratulations on the late important Succeſſes of your Majeſty's Forces in the Reduction of the Havannah, and the Retaking of the Fort of St. John's on the Iſland of Newfoundland; by which our Enemies are made ſenſible not only of the Superiority of the Britiſh Arms, but alſo of the particular Favour, which the Divine Providence beſtows on the Juſtice of the Cauſe in which they are engaged: Succeſſes, which muſt tend to the ſpeedy Eſtabliſhment of a glorious and laſting Peace, the only Addition which your Majeſty has yet to make to the Happineſs of your Subjects. May a long, peaceful, and proſperous Reign, give your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Conſort an extenſive Share in this Happineſs! And at a diſtant, far diſtant Period, may the Britiſh Crown, with all the additional Luſtre, which it muſt derive from its being long worn by your Majeſty, deſcend to the Prince of Wales, and through him to a Race of Princes of your Royal Houſe, till Time ſhall be no more!

The following Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant

Lieutenant of Ireland, and one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave, with all Humility, to congratulate your Majeſty upon the ſignal and unſpeakable Advantage gained by your Arms over the King of Spain, in the Reduction of the Havannah with its Dependencies. A Conqueſt attended with every glorious Circumſtance that could give it Luſtre, or add to its Importance againſt an Enemy, whom every Motive of Equity and due Regard for the Rights of others, had conſpired to make a Friend.

The manifold Succeſſes, with which, in the Courſe of this War, it hath pleaſed the Almighty to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms, and to reward and forward thoſe righteous Purpoſes, which made that War neceſſary on the Part of Britain, while they ſtrike us with Surprize, and warm us with Gratitude, do, at the ſame Time, inſpire us with the higheſt Confidence in your Meaſures. We ſee Enterpriſes projected, embarraſſed with Difficulties ſeeming unſurmountable, and big with Danger as with Importance, yet wiſely ſuited by your Majeſty to the Ardor and Abilities of thoſe gallant Men, to whom their Execution was committed; and who, by executing thoſe Enterpriſes with the Spirit with which they were greatly conceived, have proved your Majeſty's juſt Diſcernment in the Choice of them for ſuch important Purpoſes, and have for ever endeared themſelves to your Majeſty and to their Country.

By this Harmony of wiſe Councils with correſponding Effects, have we ſeen an Enemy, whoſe ambitious Views had long threatened the Independency of Europe, humbled and brought low, and driven to ſeek Aſſiſtance from an Ally, whoſe Efforts have afforded none, and have but ſerved to make it manifeſt, that the Reſources which your Majeſty finds in the Affections of your People, are not to be exhauſted, and miniſter a Strength to your Arm, thus raiſed in the great Cauſe of Juſtice and of Liberty, which, we truſt, no earthly Power can confound.

From Reflections ſuch as theſe, and the Confidence we derive from them, do we taſte the Sweets of Repoſe and Comforts of Security, amidſt the Din of Arms, and the Alarms of War. And we beſeech your Majeſty to be aſſured, that we feel the deepeſt Senſe of theſe Bleſſings. And that the true Loyalty, which hath ever diſtinguiſhed our City to their beſt Kings, and which naturally led them to an early and zealous Attachment to your Royal Houſe, ſhall ever remain with us unalterably confirmed towards your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, truſting, that we ſhall merit that Grace, Favour and Protection, which your Majeſty's Royal Diſpoſitions incline you to impart to a dutiful, a loyal, and an affectionate People.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City to be hereunto affixed, this Fifteenth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, having been tranſmitted by the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and of one His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, moſt humbly intreat your gracious Acceptance of our ſincereſt Congratulations on the Reduction of the Havannah with all its Dependencies: An Enterprize planned with that Judgment, conducted with that Ability, and executed with that Intrepidity, which have ſo remarkably diſtinguiſhed the extenſive Operations of this ever memorable War.

While your Enemies obſerve, that Difficulties and Dangers ſerve only to excite and diſplay the irreſiſtible Valour of your Fleets and Armies, they muſt, at the ſame Time, admire the truly heroick Greatneſs of your Royal Mind, which, while it chaſtiſes their Inſolence, compaſſionates their Diſtreſs; and, ſuperior to the Allurements of Conqueſt and Ambition, never loſes Sight of that Object, which alone can juſtify the Deva[illegible]ations of War, a ſafe and honourable Peace.

We ſhall, as it is our Duty, offer up inceſſant Prayers, that your Enemies, taught by their repeated Loſſes, and your Illuſtrious Example, may ſubmit to ſuch Terms of Accommodation as the Dignity of your Crown, and the Security of the Commercial Rights and Intereſts of your Kingdoms require: That after having glorioufly terminated this juſt and neceſſary War, your Majeſty may have full Leiſure to purſue the happy Bent of your Royal Diſpoſition, in the Protection, Encouragement, and Improvement of the more uſeful, though leſs ſhining, Arts of Peace.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, and Grand Jury of the County of Waterford, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, and Grand Jury of the County of Waterford, at the General Aſſizes held at Black Fryars in and for the ſaid County, on the Twenty-fifth Day of September, 1762.

WE your Majeſty's ever loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, High Sheriff, and Grand Jury, at ſaid Aſſizes, with Hearts full of unfeigned Joy, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Birth of your Royal Son.

We ſhould be inſenſible indeed, did we not feel, and with the deepeſt Gratitude acknowledge, the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and gentle Adminiſtration; and did we not, at the ſame Time, rejoice at the pleaſing Proſpect of having thoſe Bleſſings continued to us by a long Line of Kings in your Illuſtrious Houſe.

While other Nations are ſuffering the ſad Calamities of War and Civil Faction, with Adoration and Thankfulneſs to His Goodneſs, we behold the Supreme Ruler of All Things crowning your Majeſty's Righteous Arms with a Series of ſignal Succeſſes, and inſpiring the Minds of your Subjects with an Unanimity and Affection to their beloved Monarch, not to be paralleled in Hiſtory.

That your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort may long enjoy the Sweets of every domeſtick Comfort; and and the Glory that ſtill attends on truly Patriot Princes, ſhall ever be our moſt ardent Wiſhes and Prayers. And alſo that there may never be wanting an Heir to your Majeſty's Crown and Virtues, who may ſecure to us and the reſt of your Subjects, the true and ſolid Delights that flow from Religion uncorrupted, and rational inviolated Liberty.

The following Addreſs of the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Leiceſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Leiceſter.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, attentive to whatever adds to your private Happineſs, beg Leave, amidſt the general Joy of this Nation, to felicitate our Sovereign on the happy Occaſion of the Birth of his Royal Highneſs the Prince, and the ſafe Recovery of our Gracious Queen; the only Events requiſite to make our Joy compleat in this glorious Period of Time.

It is with peculiar Satisfaction we ſee the Happineſs of the King, and the Glory of the People, ſo immediately connected, at a Time, when the Wiſdom of His Councils, and the Succeſs of His Arms, (under the Protection of the Almighty) unknown in former Ages, afford us, every Day, Matter of Triumph, and muſt, we truſt, e'er long, force the Haughtieſt of His Enemies to accept of equitable Terms of Peace.

In order therefore to ſecure theſe Bleſſings to future Generations, we ſupplicate the Divine Goodneſs to give Length of Days to your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort: That the Prince of Wales, formed by your Patriot Principles, and taught by your great Example, may, though late, very late, aſcend the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, adorned with all the Virtues, and bleſſed with all the Glory of his truly great and illuſtrious Predeceſſor.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County Palatine of Durham, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Hon. Frederic Vane, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County Palatine of Durham, humbly beſeech your Majeſty to accept our moſt cordial Congratulations upon the late ſignal Inſtance of the Divine Favour towards your Majeſty and your Kingdoms, in ſo early bleſſing your auſpicious Marriage, by the ſafe Delivery of your Royal Conſort, and the happy Birth of a Prince of Wales.

As the memorable Day, which introduced this moſt deſired Event, revives in our Memories a grateful Senſe of that uninterrupted Courſe of Liberty and Proſperity, which theſe Nations have enjoyed for near Half a Century, under the Government of your Royal Houſe, and do now enjoy in the fulleſt Manner under your Majeſty's benign and equitable Reign; ſo does the Importance of it compleat our Hopes and Aſſurances, under the Favour of the Almighty, of the Perpetuity of theſe Bleſſings; and that the great and diſtinguiſhed Virtues, we ſo juſtly revere, and ſo ſenſibly experience in your Majeſty's Perſon and Character, will be tranſmitted, through your Royal Line, and from your Royal Pattern and Inſtruction, to our lateſt Poſterity.

May the Prince your Son, Sir, grow up, and flouriſh under your paternal Care, and illuſtrious Example; and may theſe Nations be bleſſed, though late, with the beneficial Fruits of them, when it ſhall pleaſe God to call him, by the Order of Time, or the Will of His Providence, to repreſent your Virtues, as well as Dignity, on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms. May your domeſtick Life, and that of our Royal Conſort, be ever crowned with the pleaſing Joys of filial Love and conjugal Affection, and with frequent Returns of our zealous Congratulations on the like intereſting Occaſion. And may your publick Adminiſtration be continually attended with Glory and Succeſs; and the vigorous Meaſures, you have ſo wiſely and proſperouſly purſued for the Honour of your Crown, and the Security and Happineſs of your Dominions, be ſpeedily rewarded with an advantageous and laſting Peace; whereof the late Reduction of the Havannah by the undaunted Bravery of your Armies and Fleets, gives us the ſureſt Earneſt: Upon which moſt ſeaſonable and important Event, we farther beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty; and withal, to add our moſt fervent Prayers, that you may long continue to enjoy the ſubſtantial Fruits of your many and glorious Victories, with Quiet and Dignity; revered Abroad, and beloved and obeyed at Home; triumphing over your Enemies by your Arms or your Clemency, and reigning in the Hearts of your loyal and affectionate People, by the ſtrongeſt Ties of Duty and of Gratitude.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly,

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the ſafe Delivery of our moſt Gracious Queen, and the Birth of a Prince, Heir Apparent to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms.

As we muſt ever retain a grateful Remembranc of that Happineſs which we have ſo long enjoyed under the mild Adminiſtration of your Majeſty, and the Government of your Illuſtrious Family, it is with the utmoſt Pleaſure we reflect upon an Event, which promiſes to perpetuate thoſe Bleſſings to our Poſterity. And as we are ſenſible, that the Preſervation of our Religious and Civil Liberties depends (under God) upon the Continuance of the Crown in your Royal Line; ſo we feel a peculiar Satisfaction in this Proſpect of it, which the Divine Providence has vouched to this Nation.

We alſo beg Leave further to congratulate your Majeſty upon the repeated Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, and more particularly for that ſignal Inſtance of the Divine Favour, in the late Reduction of the Havannah and its Dependencies: A Conqueſt not more important for the Riches it contained, than glorious for the Difficulties that attended it, being univerſally deemed impregnable, until this happy Æra of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

May the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and the unparalleled Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, be attended with Succeſs equal to the Juſtice of your Cauſe, and the Uprightneſs of your Intention, till this deſtructive War ends in a Peace honourable and advantageous to this Nation, and happy for the general Repoſe of every Quarter of the Globe.

Given under our Common Seal, at the City of Durham, this Twelfth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Coroner, Aſſiſtant Juſtices, Capital Burgeſſes and Burgeſſes of the Common-Council of the Borough of Bury St. Edmund in the County of Suffolk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Hon. Auguſtus John Hervey, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Coroner, Aſſiſtant Juſtices, Capital Burgeſſes and Burgeſſes of the Common-Council of the Borough of Bury St. Edmund in the County of Suffolk, in Council aſſembled,

Humbly beg Leave, with great Chearfulneſs of Heart, and in the ſincereſt Manner, to offer up our warmeſt Congratulations to your Majeſty on the auſpicious Birth of the Prince of Wales, a wiſh'd-for Encreaſe of your Majeſty's Auguſt Family: An Event, which not only adds to your Majeſty's domeſtick Felicities, but is greatly intereſting, and of the higheſt Importance to the whole Kingdom, inas much as we have a Princely Pledge and Aſſurance of having preſerved to us the free and full Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights: And may the Royal Infant, under your Majeſty's Example, Inſtruction, and Precepts, become the undoubted Means of diffuſing and perpetuating true Happineſs and Liberty throughout the Britiſh Nation.

Permit us, Royal Sir, in like Manner, to congratulate you on Her Majeſty's ſafe and happy Recovery: A Queen of Royal Dignity, and, by Unity of Judgment, acknowledged the Pride and Glory of Her People.

The ſignal Victories obtained by the intrepid Bravery of your Majeſty's Forces, are Appearances to us aſtoniſhing beyond Expreſſion, and ſeem to be the Reſult of Royal Wiſdom, founded on juſt Judgments, executed by a providential unerring Hand, for which we never fail to rejoice and pray.

And as this favourable Opportunity offers, we cannot omit humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on the late triumphant Conqueſt of the Havannah, which ſo glorioufly adds Luſtre to the reſt.

Permit us alſo to acknowledge and aſſure your Majeſty of our firm and ſteady Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family, and Government.

And we beg Leave further to add, that it ſhall be our ardent Prayers and conſtant Wiſhes, that the ſame Providence, which hath hitherto bleſſed your Majeſty with a Train of proſperous Events, may continue His Bleſſing with a numerous Off-ſpring, that from Generation to Generation, one of your Illuſtrious Houſe may ever inherit, reign, and rule over us.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the Twenty-eighth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-two.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir George Montgomery Metham, Knt. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of your Town of Kingſton upon Hull, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Queen's late happy Delivery of a Prince: An Event, which muſt greatly add to your Majeſty's domeſtick Happineſs, and gives infinite Joy to all your Subjects. We cannot, upon this joyful Occaſion, but call to Mind the many great Bleſſings we have enjoyed ever ſince the Acceſſion of your Auguſt Family to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and pleaſe ourſelves with the Proſpect of a long Continuance of them to our Poſterity, under a Prince ſprung from ſuch Illuſtrious Parents, and trained up under the Influence and Example of your Majeſty's great and eminent Virtues. Theſe, and the Zeal your Majeſty has, on many Occaſions, been graciouſly pleaſed to expreſs for maintaining the Rights, Liberties, and Proſperity of your Subjects, muſt ever endear your Majeſty to them, and make them rejoice on every Occurrence, which may contribute to the private Happineſs of your Majeſty and your Royal Family; and may Heaven continue to ſhower down its choiceſt Bleſſings upon both.

We alſo beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the great and glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Reduction of the Havannah and its Dependencies, notwithſtanding the many Difficulties in the Attempt, and the vigorous Oppoſition to it. And we cannot ſufficiently admire and praiſe the Valour and Intrepidity ſhewn by your Majeſty's Forces, as well by Sea as Land, in accompliſhing of it, nor expreſs the great Joy it gives to all your Majeſty's Subjects.

The Conqueſt of a Place of ſo great Importance to the Spaniſh Empire, in the Weſt Indies, and the making Prize of the Ships of War and Treaſure found in it, muſt ſtrike a Terror into our Enemies, and ſhould convince them of the Vanity, as well as Injuſtice, of the late Bourbon Compact, and of the War commenced in Conſequence of it, by the King of Spain, againſt your Majeſty, and your Ally the King of Portugal, without Provocation, and contrary to the Faith of many Treaties. But whatever our Enemies may think of it, we truſt in God, that this Succeſs will enable your Majeſty ſo to diſtreſs them, as to oblige them to ſue to your Majeſty for Peace, and to make ſuch Conceſſions as your Majeſty, in your great Wiſdom, ſhall think conſiſtent with your Glory, adequate to the great Expence of Blood and Treaſure they have occaſioned to us, and neceſſary for the Preſervation of the Rights, Honour and Trade of your Dominions, from all future Violations. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will chearfully contribute, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, to ſupport your Majeſty's Endeavours to theſe Ends.

Given under our Common Seal this Nineteenth Day of October, in the Second Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Glouceſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir William Codrington, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Glouceſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Glouceſter, ſenſible of every Occurrence that tends to the Increaſe of your Majeſty's Happineſs, humbly beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty upon the Birth of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales. An Event preſaging to us, that the many ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your moſt auſpicious Government, will be tranſmitted to future Generations.

And

And permit us, Great Sir, at the ſame Time, to congratulate your Majeſty on the late glorious Succeſs of your Arms, in the Reduction of the Havannah. A Conqueſt no leſs important, from the many Advantages which reſult from its Situation, than from the Conviction which it imprints on your Majeſty's Enemies, in the very Commencement of the War, how much it is their Intereſt to keep Peace with your Majeſty: A Conqueſt, which from the Manner in which it has been acquired, reflects the higheſt Honour on the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, the Conduct of your Commanders, and the Intrepidity of your Fleets and Armies.

To theſe we add our fervent Prayers, That your Majeſty may long reign over a free, loyal and brave Peoyle: That his Royal Highneſs the Prince, formed by the great Example and Precepts of a Patriot King, may prove a Bleſſing to your Majeſty and your Subjects; and that a continued Series of Succeſs may attend your Majeſty's Arms, till your Enemies ſhall be compelled to accept ſuch a Peace as your Majeſty ſhall think conſiſtent with the true Dignity and Honour of your Crown, and the future Safety and Welfare of your Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Tolſey in the ſaid Borough, the Fourteenth Day of October, in the Second Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Barons of the County of Inverneſs, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Barons of the County of Inverneſs, deeply intereſted at every Bleſſing that attends your Royal Perſon, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with their unfeigned Congratulations on the Birth of a Prince, and the Recovery of the Queen: Events that, while they add to the domeſtick Happineſs of our Sovereign, open the moſt pleaſing Expectations to the happieſt People.

May the ſame Providence, which has ſo ſignally proſpered your Majeſty's glorious Reign, not only preſerve His Royal Highneſs, but alſo endue him with ſuch Virtues and Abilities, as will enable him to be a glorious Inſtrument of Happineſs to theſe Nations, and, in the Fulneſs of Time, to tranſmit entire to Poſterity, thoſe Bleſſings we enjoy under the Government of your Majeſty's moſt Auguſt Houſe.

Signed at Inverneſs, in Preſence and by Appointment of the Meeting, this 7th of October, 1762.

This Day is published,

A DIGEST of the LAWS of ENGLAND. VOLUME the FIRST.

By the Right Hon. Sir JOHN COMYNS, Knight, Late Lord Chief Baron of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer.

Printed by H. Woodfall and W. Strahan, Law-Printers to the King's most Excellent Majesty: For John Knapton, Thomas Longman, and Robert Horsfield.

PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors, of John Butcher, late of East Greenwich in the County of Kent, Fisherman, deceased, are peremptorily required to come in and prove their several Debts before Samuel Bonner, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn in Chancery Lane, London, on or before the 20th of December next, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms; But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.

BY THE KING's PATENT, bearing Date the First of September, 1761.

THE IMPERIAL LOTION, being a Chymical Preparation, the wonderful Qualities of which, by an outward Application, are to extract and expel any Injury or Infection received upon Coition with Persons having the Venereal Disease. Price 10s. 6d. the Bottle. One Bottle will preserve a Person for many Months, and although he has carnal Knowledge of many unclean Persons, he cannot possibly receive any Injury. There is no Occasion to expatiate upon the Use and Happiness of such a Discovery, as all the attendant dreadful Consequences of this Disorder, so fatal to many, by proper Application hereof, may now be prevented, and the Lives and Health of many Thousands preserved by it.

Also, The Admirable ESSENCE OF LIFE, being Chymical Drops, which are an absolute and infallible Cure for Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds, and all Manner of Inward Decays; the Like of which for Certainty in those difficult Cases has never been equalled. Price 6s. the Bottle. By the Author's Appointment these most excellent Medicines are to be had at Mr. JACKSON's Medicinal Warehouse, Fleet-Market, London, and at Mr. Carr's, Bookseller, in Portsmouth, where a Treatise on these powerful Remedies may be had gratis, with plain Instructions, by the Use of which, every Person may preserve and cure himself, even in the worst Cases, without much Trouble, or any further Advice whatever.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, on Monday the 6th Day of December next, between the Hours of Four and Six in the Afternoon, before John Browning, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn in Chancery Lane, London, The Freehold and Leasehold Estates late of Susannah Trench, Widow, deceased, consisting of an undivided Moiety of a Dwelling House on College Hill in the City of London; and of two Sugar Houses behind the said Dwelling House, extending backwards into Queen Street, and opening also into Maiden Lane; and also of two Messuages in Queen Street aforesaid, converted into another Sugar House; all which Premisses are in the Tenure of Mr. Fenwick, at the yearly Rent of 200 l. Further Particulars to be had at the said Master's Chambers.

THE Sales of the Estates of Henry Uhthoff, a Bankrupt, situate in London and Lancashire, lately advertised to be on Wednesday the 17th Instant, (by Mistake in the Advertisement mentioned to be the 19th Instant) are postponed until further Notice—nevertheless the Commissioners will meet at Guildhall, London, on the said 17th Day of this Instant November, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take Proofs of Debts.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against John Courtney, late of the City of Coventry, Stuff Merchant and Chapman, deceased, are entreated to meet the Assignee of his Estate and Effects, on Monday the 29th Day of November Instant, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the House of Samuel Thomas, being the White Bear Inn in Coventry aforesaid, to take into Consideration a Claim upon the said Bankrupt's Estate; and to impower the said Assignee to submit to Arbitration, compound, or agree the same, as shall then be determined.
